

Feel Safe Panic Strip

An illuminated call/alarm strip

The pressure sensitive 'Safe Zone' strip can be integrated with all Call Aid UK wired and radio call units to provide a flexible system that is easy to install and use.

Recommended to be fitted to any area where staff are alone with members of the public.

Panic Strip applications:

- Consultation room - dado rail
- Accessible toilets/Disabled toilets - dado and low levels
- Reception area - dado affray alarm strip
- Breathalyser room
- Photography room
- Fingerprint room
- Medical room
- Interview rooms
- The custody bridge
- Custody parking & entrance
- Charge area
- Custody counter
- Corridors

An illuminated call/alarm strip

- Can be linked into any CAUK panic Alarms Wired or Radio.
- Visual impact zone sizably wider than anything else on the market.
- Low profile to reduce accidental activation and minimise potential accidental injury.
- Adjustable impact sensitivity area.
- Visual assurance at all times to staff that the strip is activated and functional.
- Acts as a deterrent to potential assailants with warning lights
- Visual multi call system to manage potential conflict situations
- Braille marking available on request

Safe Zone Panic Strip

Build and Features

- Full length illumination
- End of line monitoring – guaranteeing continuity of alarm strip
- Available in either bright anodised, satin anodised aluminium base
- Robust, flexible, continuous insert available in blue, red and green
- Virtually unbreakable laminated composite structure, won't tear or rip
- End caps are designed to be vandal and tamper proof
- Easy clean
- Self-monitoring

Optional

- Anti-microbial coating and impregnation of insert for life long protection against 99.9% of super bugs (kills MRSA, C- Difficile, E-Coli and Salmonella at spore level)

None illuminated call/alarm strip

The none illuminated strip can be integrated with the Call Aid UK battery radio call units to provide an instant solution that is easy to install and use.

Continuous illuminated alarm strip

- Can be linked into any CAUK panic alarms wired or radio.
- Visual impact zone ten times wider than anything else on the market.
- Low profile to reduce accidental activation and minimise potential of accidental injury.
- Visual assurance at all times to staff that the strip is activated and functional
- Acts as a deterrent to potential assailants with warning lights
- Can be cut to any length.

